FARMER TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

William Gay, Well-Known Bourbon Citizen Suicides by Shooting Himself in Head

BODY IS FOUND IN GARAGE

William Gay, 53 years old, wealthy farmer of North Middletown, Bourbon county, shot himself in the head with a 32 caliber revolver in the garage at his home Saturday morning. He died about an hour after being found in an unconscious condition.

Mr. Gay ate breakfast as usual with his family. Finishing before the rest he went out into the back yard and later to the garage, where he was found when he did not return to the house within a reasonable period of time. No one heard the report of the gun.

Mr. Gay, who owned 1,000 acres of Bourbon and Clark county land, had been active in the conduct of his farming interests until about four years ago when his health began to fail. Since then he has been several times to sanitariums, but had been unable to regain his health. This condition is believed to have caused him to take his life.

Mr. Gay was born in Clark county, where he lived until about 20 years ago, when he moved to North Middletown. His widow, who survives him, was before her marriage Miss Margaret Woodford, of Mt. Sterling, a niece of Benjamin Woodford and Catesby Woodford, Sr., of Bourbon county. He is also survived by two brothers, David S. Gay and Nelson P. Gay, business men of Winchester; three sisters, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Stanley Prewitt and Mrs. Mary Gay, of Clark county, and one half-sister, Mrs. Gano Hildreth, of Bourbon county; four children, Miss Cally Gay, Woodford Gay, Nannie Gay and Hawsey Gay.

The news of Mr. Gay's untimely end was received here with sincere expressions of regret. He was well-known throughout the county, where he had for many years extensive dealings with farmers and

NEW RULING ON INCOME TAX

The New Revenue Act of 1921 Contains Two New and Important Provisions

SUBJECT OF MUCH INQUIRY

The following statement is issued by Collector of Internal Revenue Robert H. Lucas, district of Kentucky:

"The Revenue Act of 1921 contains two new and important provisions, which are the subject of frequent inquiry. The first relates to the personal exemptions allowed married persons, and the second to the previous requiring that a return be made of gross income of $5,000 or more.

"The act provides that a married person living with husband or wife, whose net income for 1921 was $5,000 or less shall be allowed a personal exemption of $2,500. If the net income of such person was over $5,000 the exemption is $2,000. Under the Revenue Act of 1918 the personal exemption allowed a married person was $2,000, regardless of the amount of net income. The normal tax rate remains unchanged, 4 per cent. on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions and 8 per cent. on the remaining net income.

"In order that an income slightly in excess of $5,000 shall not be subjected to an inordinately disproportionate tax because of the reduction of the exemption to $2,000 thereon, the law provides that such production shall not operate to increase the tax, which would be payable if the exemption were $2,500, by more than the amount of the net income in excess of $5,000.

"For example, on a net income of $5,010, the tax, without this saving clause, would be $120.40, which is 4 per cent. on $3,010, the amount of net income less an exemption of $2,000. The actual tax is $110.44, computed as follows: From the net income of $5,010 is deducted $2,510, the 4 per cent. tax on which amounts to $100.40. To this is added $10, the amount of net income excess of $5,000.

"The personal exemptions allowed married persons, apply also to the head of a family, a person who supports in one household one or more relatives by blood, marriage or adoption.

"Heretofore, a person whose net income was less than his exemption (1,000 if single, or $2,000 if married), was not required to file a return. Under the Revenue Act of 1921, if the gross income of an individual equalled or exceeded $5,000, or if the combined gross income of a married couple and that of dependent minor children equalled or exceeded $5,000, a return must be filed regardless of the amount of net income.

"Net income" is gross income, less certain deductions. The fact that allowable deductions from gross income, for business expenses, losses, bad debts, etc., may reduce the net income to an amount below the personal exemptions of $1,000 or $2,000, does not alter the requirement to file a return of gross income, if such gross income equalled or exceeded $5,000.

AMERICAN LEGION ELECTS OFFICERS

At the regular annual meeting of Bourbon Post, American Legion, held in the court house Saturday night, the following officers for the new year of 1922 were elected: Commander, Rev. T. S. Smylie; vice-commander, Nathan Bayless; adjutant and service officer, F. G. Hagan; finance officer, C. C. Dawes; sergeant-at-arms, Alvin Brannock; athletic officer, M. M. Sheffield; historian, Harold F. Harris.

The Executive Committee for the new year is composed of Capt. Wm. Collins, Bernard J. Santen, Clifton Arnsperger, Y. H. Harrison and Finell Galloway. This committee was named to investigate the possibility of securing a suitable suite of rooms for use of the Post members. A committee was also appointed to confer with the State officials of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion to secure a branch of the organization in this city.

Love at first sight is as good as any, if it sticks.

ADVANCES TO TOBACCO MEN

President Stone Asks Tobacco Dealers to Deliver In Crop Lots To Facilitate Handling

MARKETS TO OPEN SOON

"I want to thank the members of the association for their patience and loyalty," said James C. Stone, president and general manager of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, Saturday. "I want to assure them that their officers have been working night and day in order to begin receiving the tobacco of members at the earliest possible moment, and I am glad to say now that we shall be ready to begin receiving the 1921 crop within the next few days.

"I should like to say to the members of the association that it will be better for everybody if every grower will deliver his tobacco in crop lots, as this will greatly facilitate the handling of the tobacco and lessen the work incident to the receiving of 55,000 different lots of tobacco by the association and the advancing of money on each at the time of delivery."

The probable opening of the warehouses within the next few days, as announced by Mr. Stone, for the receiving of the pooled crop and the consequent payment to the growers of advances on the delivery of their crops is an answer in the inquiry that has been uppermost in the minds of the growers who are members of the association.

President Stone was unable to state the exact time of the opening of the receiving plants, but the officials have been engaged actively for many hours each day and some times until far into the night in preparing for the opening of the houses and the receiving of the tobacco and that he was able to fix the time as within the next few days was satisfactorily received by the growers informed of the situation in answer to their inquiries.

A large delegation of tobacco growers will go to Frankfort to-day to hear Aaron Sapiro, of California, legal adviser of the association, explain the Bingham co-operative marketing bill in the House of Representatives, which will vote on it immediately after Mr. Sapiro concludes his address. The time set for Mr. Sapiro to address the House is 10 o'clock this morning.

Members of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association have no disposition to interfere in any way with the sales of non-pooled tobacco, nor to deny those growers who did not see fit to join the association the right to a place to sell their tobacco, President Stone said Saturday.

Mr. Stone said that one of the most pleasing features of the situation was the evident purpose of the organized growers to allow those who did not see fit to join the association to sell their tobacco where they pleased, unhindered by any who may have joined the association or their friends.

An American flag and a State flag were presented Saturday afternoon, in Louisville, with impressive ceremonies, to the military unit of the Kentucky House of Reform, by Mrs. Fred M. Sackett. The ceremonies were attended by members of the Kentucky Legislature, the State Board of Corrections and Charities, including Miss Lucy Simms, of Paris. The presentation remarks were made by Miss Simms and Mrs. Lafon Riker, on behalf of Mrs. Sackett, who was present. A brief address was also made by Mr. R. C. Ballard Thurston, of Louisville, whose collection of flags is said to be the greatest in existence.

CANTRILL TALKS TO CONGRESS

Kentucky Congressman Describes Burley Association As Largest Marketing Body In U. S.

GIVES FACTS AND FIGURES

Representative J. C. Cantrill, of Kentucky, told the House of Representatives at Washington, how Kentucky burley tobacco growers had marketing organization in the country.

"During the last four or five months we have built a farmers' co-operative organization in Kentucky," said Mr. Cantrill, "and I believe it will be of interest to the House and to the country at large to know something about it. We have recently formed an organization in Kentucky of 55,000 paid-up membership.

"Our membership extends into the States of West Virginia, Southern Indiana and Southern Ohio, which grow the same type of burley that we grow in Kentucky. This organization is thoroughly perfected, now ready to do business. It controls 200,000,000 pounds of burley tobacco, which constitutes 85 per cent of the entire production of that type of tobacco."

"We have under our control, belonging to the organization, 115 large warehouses, ready to handle this tobacco crop, these warehouses costing between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000. I believe that this is the largest organization in point of numbers of any co-operative association in the country.

"By direct vote of the 55,000 members we have selected able, conservative business men to handle this organization. We expect to get a price for this tobacco crop which will total between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000, and that will be, as we hope, the average sum per annum paid to the organization."

Oh, certainly. A forger should be sent to the pen.

And you see what disarmament people have cold feet.

And you see what disarmament has done for West Virginia.

EDITORIAL FLINGS

A lady writer has her "style" which isn't bad; Critics tell her all the while She musn't "pad."

A man with his family in a covered wagon passed through Paris one day last week. On the side of his wagon was displayed the words: "Mexico is desperation; Texas is starvation; farming is speculation. The whole world is shot to Hades under the Harding administration. I am moving back to old Bourbon county."

Many landlords in this city of Paris, Ky., have lately advised their tenants of a raise in rents, owing to certain conditions with which they alone are familiar. And the situation has just about come to this: A little jump in Mary's rent Made Mary rather sore; But everywhere that Mary went They wanted a little more.

Plaint of a Paris man: "Horse racing in Kentucky must not be stopped. Kentucky is the garden spot of the world, and what has helped to make it so more than its fine horses, the best in the world? Kings and courts have crossed the seas to witness horse races in this State. Other things may be abolished, but the greatest of all, the fleet thoroughbred, must be allowed to remain."

A certain Paris shoe dealer, whose name is withheld for obvious reasons, concluded to make a change in the personnel of his force, and to that end was considering applications from several. One young fellow of quick, alert appearance faced the ordeal. Said the shoe man, "Suppose a lady customer were to remark while you were trying to fit her, 'Don't you think one of my feet is bigger than the other?' what would you say?" "Well, sir," replied the applicant, with a smile, "I should say, 'On the contrary, madam, one is smaller than the other.'" He got the job.

The "editors" of the Kentucky Kernal, a college publication at Lexington, undertakes to cast a slur on the hardworking newspaper man who have gained their education and experience by starting at the foot of the ladder, and working their ways up to the top. These "editors" write:

"The majority of small newspaper editors are not educated, and a few of them are hopeless, but with the advent of the era of college-bred editors, the standards of rural newspapers in the country are going to be raised until they will stand out as models of English and good service."

Well, well, boys, guess we will have to stand this dig, and get along the best way we can on the experience gained by long years of actual work in all departments of a country newspaper. Too bad we can't be "educated" newspaper men.

QUEER CUSTOMS IN NEW HEBRIDES

Strange Rites Over Shark Which Natives Bury Annually in Their "Sing-Sing."

CHIEFS HONORED IN EFFIGY

Make Crude Statue of Clay and Fibre and Hold Festivities Around It—Number of Skirts Indicates Woman's Rank.

Washington, D. C.—"A proposal of the French society of the New Hebrides to sell to Australia their concessions in the islands which form a large Y in the South Pacific, north of New Zealand and west of Fiji, recalls the strange rites over the shark, which the native men of Ranno island bury annually in their 'Sing-Sing' or ceremony grounds," says a bulletin of the National Geographic Society from its Washington (D. C.) headquarters.

"The inhabitants of this interesting archipelago, composed of 12 large and 100 smaller islands, believe in witchcraft and all sorts of signs and omens, particularly in the spirits of their departed ancestors and in gods which are thought to be incorporated in certain stones or animals. Every village has its dancing ground. Here the natives meet on moonlight nights and perform wild and fantastic antics to the booming of their deep drums, some of which, six feet or more in height and carved from the trunks of trees, are capable of making terrible noises.

Honor Chiefs in Effigy.

"One fantastic rite among them is the memorializing of their chiefs in effigy. A crude statue of clay and fibre, representing the flesh and hair of the chief as he looked in real life, is made, his actual skull being used for the framework of the head, and around this the festivities take place.

"For years the natives of the islands were the prey of the 'Black-birds,' or labor pirates, because they are generally considered more industrious and sturdier of build than the average kanaka. They are reputed to have cannibalistic tendencies, to be treacherous and of uncertain temper, facts probably due in some measure to the treatment to which they were subjected by these traders. They are of Melanesian stock, below the medium in stature, and accentuate the ugliness in their broad, black faces and receding foreheads by sticking coconut fiber in their hair and adorning their ears and flat noses with rings. They pride themselves upon their weapons—spears, clubs, bows, and poisoned arrows—some of which are beautiful in design and elaborate in pattern.

"The women hold a degraded position among them, the wives of the more important members of the race increasing the number of skirts which they wear at one time as an indication of their rank, the 'pooh-bah's' wife wearing as many as 40 of them. The 'better half' of a man is sometimes buried alive with her husband upon his death.

"Quiros, the Portuguese navigator, in 1606, was the first white man to see the rugged outline of the coast of the islands, which rise abruptly out of the deep sea in the hurricane zone of the tropics. Believing he had discovered the great southern continent which was at that time the dream of navigators, Quiros may be compared to Columbus, who thought he had found a route to India when he sighted the palm fringed shores of the West Indies.

"He called his discovery Australia del Espritu Santo, which has been shortened by traders to Santo and is applied to the largest island of the group.

Isle of Monster Fruits.

"Countless streams cut Santo, which is 64 miles long and 32 miles wide, into broad, fertile valleys. From its shores and those of the neighboring islands tons of copra are sent to Sydney, Australia, and shipped from there to soap makers the world over. Coffee, cocoa and vanilla, as well as tropical fruits, grow in abundance. Oranges are said to grow so large that both a man's hands can scarcely span one of them, and the pineapples of the islands sometimes weigh 20 pounds. So rich is the soil and luxuriant the vegetation, that in many places 5,000 sheep can be kept on two thousand acres of land.

"Vila harbor, which is set between mountain peaks and gemmed with islands, is the most important commercially among the many commodious and strategic harbors, which the islands afford. The scattered little village, which dozes under the shelter of its palm trees, has built no pier to encourage its shipping. The cargoes must be loaded by the natives in small boats. Though the progress of conquering nations has left its mark in the Catholic and Presbyterian churches and the large wireless station, the town is essentially native in character with its thatch-roofed houses set amid the colorful hibiscus blossoms, and sometimes fortified with stone walls."

Kills Duck With Revolver.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Policeman Romig has qualified as the champion marksman of the Harrisburg force. Romig was detailed to do police duty on Island Park. As he walked around the island he discovered a duck down the Susquehanna river. Romig fired his revolver and got the duck.

DIAL RADIUM $120,000 GRAM

Atoms Used on Luminous Face Causes 200,000 Explosions Every Second.

New York.—If a thimbleful of radium costs $120,000, how can manufacturers afford to use it for painting the dials of $4.98 wrist watches? Does this paint really contain radium?

The answer to these frequently heard questions explains some of the wonders of radium, for that metal is used for this work, each dial containing a minute portion of the real radium. The fact that so infinitesimal a quantity of radium as is used on a watch dial is able to make the figures glow in the dark makes it easier for the average person to understand how and why radium in larger quantities is effective when brought into contact with diseased tissue by the medical profession.

Luminous material seen on watch and clock dials is a combination of radium and a specially prepared zinc sulphide. If one of these dials be examined with a good reading glass, in the dark, after the eyes of the examiner have been in darkness for about five minutes, the luminous material will be seen to be seething with scintillations or tiny flashes of light. These flashes are caused by the explosion of the atoms in the minute portion of real radium in the mixture.

"From a gram of radium (one thimbleful) there are about 184,000,000,000 projectile-like particles every second. Crystals of zinc sulphide would break down quickly if exposed to such a bombardment. By reducing the percentage of radium until the number of these particles from the exploding atoms on the dial was about 200,000 a second, it has been found that the dial would have a brightness easily visible in darkness and for a period of five years. This means that the quantity of radium in the average dial cannot be more than one-millionth of a gram, and it is only about such a quantity that is on the average dial."

SAYS COLORS AFFECT US

William Hoyt Peck, New York scientist and authority on the psychological effect of color on humanity, declares that brilliant green street lights would clear all thoroughfares of gunmen and burglars and that bright red lights should be used in quick lunch rooms to save patrons from the ravages of dyspepsia. For more than twenty years Professor Peck has been an investigator of color phenomena.

ALASKA SNOWFALL IS LIGHT

Richmond, Va., or St. Louis Is Three Times as Great, Says Explorer Stefansson.

Washington.—By the figures of the United States weather bureau, snowfall in winter in St. Louis, Mo., or in Richmond, Va., is three or four times as great as for the north coast of Alaska, while we believe that the snowfall in St. Louis or the Highlands of Scotland is ten times as great as on the north tip of Greenland or on the northerly islands, discovered by my expedition of 1913-19, says Vilhjalmur Stefansson.

In the north polar regions there is, to begin with, very little snow on the ground at the end of winter. In some parts of the polar regions the temperature is 100 degrees in the shade in the summer. For three or four or five months, according to just where you are, you have green prairies and flowery meadows that are a delight to every sense but for the unbelievable plague of insects—mosquitoes, sand flies, horseflies and the like.

Her Callers Came, Reception Was Hot

Mount Vernon, Wash.—Callers were what Mrs. Imogene Harrington craved—Sunday callers, and lots of them. Furthermore she desired that her visitors arrive at once, so as not to keep things waiting.

Mrs. Harrington had no reception invitations out. And, if she had, even the humanized mail service would have been too slow. So Mrs. Harrington, brought from her home, near Bow, earlier in the day, on an insanity charge, set fire to the women's section of the Mount Vernon jail.

The visitors arrived with speed that delighted the heart of the hostess. And the firemen poured.

To Health

Some people never need any medicine at all. They are, as the saying goes, "strong as a bull." They are mighty lucky. Most people need a good tonic once in a while. They take cold, or through overwork or social activity do not get enough sleep; many eat improper food and thus hurt the digestion. It is mighty wise to take Gude's Pepto-Mangan with the meals for a few weeks and build up. One cannot have too much good health. Pepto-Mangan gives you plenty of red blood, and everybody knows that red blood means feeling good and looking good all the time. Sold by druggists in liquid and tablet form. (adv)

PRICHARD SELLS THROUGH-

Ed. F. Prichard, of Paris, left for New Orleans, on Saturday, to make arrangements for shipping to his Ashburne Stock Farm, near Paris, a number of fine thoroughbreds, purchased there by M. and J. Lowenstein.

Mr. Prichard recently sold to Charlton Clay the chestnut colt by Jim Gaffney, dam Continue; to M. and J. Lowenstein, of Chicago, a chestnut filly by Emerson Cochran, dam Souvenir; to S. H. Veile, of Kansas City, Mo., a brown colt by Mint out of La Dotta. Mr. Prichard and the Lowensteins have purchased an interest in the brown horse, Paul Weldel, by Golden Maxim, out of Lady Lexington, by Hastings. This horse will make his first season at the Ashburne Farm this year. Under an agreement for five years Mr. Prichard will also have at his Ashburne Farm the eight-year-old bay stallion, Dodge, by Jim Gaffney, dam Flora Willoughby, by Florist. Dodge belongs to John S. Ward, of Louisville.

Linen Thousands of Years Old.
One of the "finds" made in Thebes, in Egypt, by the expedition of the Metropolitan museum, was a body which had been buried with, apparently, all the household linen. There were about forty beautiful linen sheets, says M. Walter Hauser, one of the members of the expedition, very big and all fringed. The linen had turned to a lovely shade of golden brown and was in perfect condition. Some of the sheets showed signs of having been carefully mended.

CLUB WOMEN TO FIGHT FOR NEEDED LEGISLATION

Club women of Kentucky who will make a fight at this session for laws that relate especially to women and children will be aided in their work by Miss Jeanette Rankin, of Montana, the nation's first congresswoman. Miss Rankin, accompanied by Mrs. R. P. Halleck, of Louisville arrived in Frankfort, Tuesday. The former will be there for practically the entire legislative session, but Miss Rankin will make a speaking tour of the State in an effort to bring the women of Kentucky into close touch with the work which the club women are doing. Mrs. Halleck, although interested in all of the laws to be supported by the club women of the State, is devoting most of her time to a minimum wage law for women.

The Kentucky League of Women Voters and the State Federation of Women's Clubs will co-operate together to secure the passage of certain laws relating to women and children. The legislative part of the work will be looked after by Mrs. Charles Semple, Mrs. Benjamin Bayless, Mrs. J. B. Judah, of Louisville, and other club women. Miss Alice Lloyd, of Maysville, also joined the club women.

If your back aches, if sharp pains strike you in the back when stooping, lifting or working; if you have headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pain; if the urine is discolored or passages painful and scanty, try Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy so widely used and so well recommended by men in the painting trade. Here's a Paris testimony:

Ed. Richardson, painter and decorator, 552 Vine street, says: "I suffered severely from my back and it put me past going. I am a painter by trade and handling so much turpentine and inhaling its fumes is what I blame for the cause of the trouble. Many a night I was annoyed by the frequent action of my kidneys and would have to get up many times to pass the secretions and this greatly disturbed my rest. I had dizzy spells and felt sick all over until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Oberdoerfer's Drug Store. I used several boxes as directed and they fixed me up in good shape."

LEAF MARKETING IN HARDING PLAN

Co-operative marketing of farm products will constitute a definite part of the program for the National Agricultural Conference to be called by Secretary Henry C. Wallace, and probably to be held in Washington, January 23, it was made known recently.

This phase of the conference program was discussed with Mr. Wallace by Clifton Rhodes, of Burgin, Ky., who has been associated with the burley co-operative tobacco movement in Kentucky, and who is now engaged in similar work in West Virginia.

Mr. Rhodes also called on President Warren G. Harding, whose attention he called to the interest taken by farmers in Mr. Harding's recent message to Congress.

In that message Mr. Harding said, regarding the agricultural situation, that "in the main the remedy is believed to lie in distribution and marketing, every proper encouragement should be given to the co-operative marketing programs."

As a whole, the conference will seek to ascertain present causes of depression and then proceed to set up policies by which prosperity will be restored.

Sea Otter Practically Extinct.

California, in 1913, passed a law prohibiting the taking or possession of sea otter skins, but there is a fear that this protection may have come too late, for except for the two reported to have been seen off Monterey a few years ago, the otter visits those coasts no more. The Spanish governor at San Jose, believing that the Indians were becoming too wealthy from hunting the otter, issued a similar edict in his day.

The secret of a "balanced diet" is to have food containing all the elements needed for proper nutrition. Grape-Nuts, the nourishing cereal made of whole wheat flour and malted barley, served with cream or milk, is a complete food for young and old alike.

FAVOR BLUE GRASS SEED MARKET POOL.

At a meeting of farmers of Bourbon county, held at the court house Saturday afternoon, a stand was taken in favor of adopting a co-operative marketing plan for next year's crop of bluegrass seed, similar to that of the tobacco growers' association. A committee composed of the following was appointed to go to Winchester to-day to attend a mass meeting of farmers and others interested in the seed industry: Sam Clay, George W. Clay, James M. Caldwell, Warren Rogers and L. A. Soper. The delegates were given instructions to do all in their power to further the adoption of the plan.

TOBACCO BARN AND CONTENTS BURNED

Fire of undetermined origin about 10:30 o'clock Saturday night totally destroyed a large tobacco barn containing about 3,000 pounds of tobacco and farming implements, on the farm of George Osborne, about two miles from Lexington, on the Old Frankfort pike. The loss was estimated at approximately $6,000, partially covered by insurance.

The barn contained about 3,000 pounds of tobacco belonging to Mr. Osborne and Isaac Miller. In addition to the tobacco the barn contained many valuable farming implements, 15,000 tobacco sticks, a quantity of hay and several water tanks.

Thought For The Day

We know some fellows who like to dream of their childhood days back on the farm, of the babbling brook, the old swimming hole, the moss-covered bucket, the hayloft, the orchard, the meadow, the barefoot days and the little girl sweetheart who, like Maud Muller, raked in the hay and wrote love notes at school. These utterly human fellows will never grow tired of that kind of reminiscing. It's good for the soul.

Hitherto winding up our Ingersoll watch was the nearest approach to the delights of cranking a car we were able to compass. But now, with the prospect that it's to be done on a large scale, we cannot get away from the thought that, even in its decadence, that familiar dial remains a sign of the times. On your wrist—or on her ankle—something more delicately adjusted is required.

The rule of "leaving well enough alone" is all right, but it is too often used by the fellows who are too lazy to make a move, even if they know in their inmost souls that the old way of doing things could be improved on.

GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS HEALTH FORTNIGHT WEEK

Health fortnight from January 30 to February 12, has been proclaimed by Gov. Edwin P. Morrow. In his proclamation, Governor Morrow says that as 60 per cent. of the illness and 40 per cent. of the deaths in Kentucky are due to preventable causes, every man, woman and child in the State should consider it their duty to attend the National Health Exposition in Louisville, February 1 to 9. The exposition is to be given under the direction of the United States Public Health Bureau, city and county health boards during it, the United States Public Health Service will hold its national institute in Louisville.

BASKET BALL

Possibility that Basil Hayden, of Paris, all-Southern forward, might be absent from the University of Kentucky's basketball lineups during the 1922 season developed into a certainty during the past week. Hayden, who was captain of the team in 1921, has suffered from a wrenched knee since the closing of the last year's net schedule. Coach George Buchheit has given Hayden instructions to leave off practice until the knee is healed up again, and it is possible that the all-Southern may be seen on the basketball court before the season closes.

The Lexington Model High School basketball team defeated the teams from the Paris High School in two games played on the Lexington floor Friday night. The game between the boys' teams resulted in a score of 50 to 9 in favor of the Lexington team, while the game between the girls' teams was also returned in favor of the Lexingtonians by a score of 22 to 10. The Paris teams put up a game fight, but were unable to overcome the headway the Lexington Hi teams had made in the first half of their respective games. The Paris teams were composed of Messrs. Clark, Jones, Meglone, Wright and Larkin; Misses Wallingford, Hall, Rose, Baldwin and K. Wallingford. The substitutes were: Knox for Meglone; Meglone for Knox; Miss Collier for Miss V. Wallingford.

Brophy, for Paris, played a regular Bo McMillan game for the local team Knights of Columbus, in the game Friday night with the Old Kentucky team, from Bardstown. The game was featured with many startling plays, the Paris boys being on their toes, flushed with success in the initial stages of the game, and eager to take the full measure of their opponents. The final score stood 24 to 16 in favor of Paris. Despite many counter attractions there was a good attendance, showing interest in the game to be on the upward trend.

The Y. M. C. A. team and the Y team from Covington are scheduled for a game on the local floor on Friday night. This promises to be one of the best and fastest games of the season. The Paris aggregation is now in its prime, and they have made considerable progress in the past two weeks. There will be in addition to the basket ball game a program of gymnastic stunts and music. The Covington team has an unbroken line of victories to their credit for the season so far. In Capt. Dawes, Roberts, Tucker, Chipley, Porte, McIntyre, Kenney and Meglone, Paris has a bunch who can fill their positions in great style.

The Sayre College basket ball team of Lexington, and the Millersburg College team are scheduled for a game on the latter's floors on February 3.

Paris High School teams took both games of a double-header played with the Nicholasville High School teams at the Y. M. C. A. in this city Saturday night. The local boys trimmed their opponents by a score of 21 to 8 and the girls' team won over Nicholasville by the score of 19 to 6. Of the twenty-one points made by the Paris boys, Wright scored fifteen, while the defensive work of Clark and Meglone made another feature of the game. Miss Hall was the star performer for the Paris girls team, making eleven points, while Miss Hughes caged the six points for the visitors. One of the largest crowds ever assembled in the Y saw the games. During the game a rough house play ensued, in which one of the Nicholasville players and two of the Paris players mixed things considerably. After the game the trouble was renewed in the lobby, but the combatants were separated by officials and visitors.

THOROUGHBREDS ARRIVE AT CLAIBORNE FARM

John Miller, of Lexington, has arrived from New York, with a carload of thoroughbreds consigned to various owners in the Blue Grass. Among the number were the following, which have been sent to the Claiborne Stock Farm of A. B. Hancock, near Paris:

Chanutrice, br. m. (1912), by Chaucer—St. Cecelia, (granddam of Cleopatra, winner of the Latonia Championship Stakes, etc., (1920), by St. Serf—Melody (dam of Winifreda, winner of the One Thousand Guineas), (in foal to Golden Sun, sire of Golden Corn.)

Harbour Light, sh. m. (1911), by Sunridge (sire of Sunstar)—Lima-sol (winner of the Oaks), (in foal to White Eagle.)

Chorus, b. f. (1919) (practically full sister in blood to Cleopatra), by Corevra—Chauterrie, by Chaucer.

The first foal of the year to be reported comes from the Claiborne farm of Mr. Hancock, and is a bay colt foaled January 4, by Imp. Ambassador from Sumptuous (dam of Bountiful, grandam of Good Times, and sister to Billie Hibbs and Pater) by Fatherless.

The Young Peoples' Missionary Society of the Methodist church celebrated the tenth anniversary of the Society with a "birthday party" at the church Friday evening. The guests of honor were Mrs. E. M. The installation of the new officers was conducted by Mrs. McClure in a unique ceremony patterned after a marriage ceremony. A lunch was served at 6:30, when a birthday cake, on which was a lighted taper for each year of service was cut. The last year was one of the most successful in the history of the organization, and is a tribute to the efficient leadership of Miss Olivia Orr.

SPEAKER THOMPSON ADHERES TO REPUBLICAN PRECEDENT

Speaker Jas. H. Thompson, voicing the desire to follow the precedent of liberality in the naming of minority members on the House committees, set by Joe F. Bosworth, Republican, Speaker in 1920 General Assembly, in a conference with Floor Leader Bosworth requested him to appoint three Republican members for each of the House committees.

In the 1920 Legislature, when Bosworth was chosen Speaker, the permission of suggesting minority members by the minority leader was inaugurated for the first time in the Kentucky Assembly. At that time Thompson was the Democratic floor leader and his request indicates that he intends to follow the same liberal course carried out when the Republican members were in a majority.

BOURBON FARM CONDITIONS

Most of the tobacco in Bourbon county has been stripped and the farmers and growers are awaiting the signal from the Co-operative Association to bring some of it in to the warehouses. When the warehouses are ready to receive the crop the growers will be able to deliver it rapidly.

Pastures are still green, and up to the present time very little feed has been fed stock. Because of the unusually open winter stock of all kinds have fared very well on the pastures. Although there has been no snow to the present time there have been no freezes sufficient to damage the wheat and other small grains. During the latter part of the week eggs took a tumble, going to thirty cents on the local market, with a plentiful supply on the dealers' hands.

BOURBON FISCAL COURT

Judge George Batterton presided over the first meeting of the new Bourbon County Fiscal Court, at the January meeting, held in the County Court room. The following members of the Court were present: Frank P. Lowry, E. P. Thomason, R. H. Burries, John S. Talbott, A. L. Stephenson, John W. Bell, John N. Shropshire and Robert O. Turner.

A large number of claims against the county were allowed and ordered paid.

Jailer James E. Taylor was allowed the sum of $75 per month for taking care of the court house and grounds and the county jail.

Magistrates Lowry and Stephenson were appointed a committee to investigate and report the amount to be appropriated by the county for the Massie Memorial Hospital.

The sum of $51,749.93 was ordered paid to the Bourbon County Road Commissioners for expenses incurred and accounts paid, to be derived from the turnpike fund.

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC

The importance of keeping the free mail delivery system in the city of Paris to a high standard is again emphasized by Postmaster J. Walter Payne, who earnestly requests observance of the following requirements, as set forth in instructions from the Postoffice Department at Washington:

First—Address letters plainly to the street and number of the house; Be sure you have a mail box or a slot in your door, so that mail carriers may deliver your mail promptly; Have your home or business house properly and accurately numbered, as this will be a great help in the delivery of mail; Second—Head letters with the full name and address of the writer, and request answers to be addressed accurately; Third—Letters to strangers or transient visitors in the city whose special address may not be known should be marked in the left hand corner by the word "Transient;" Fourth—Place postage stamps in the right hand corner of the envelope, and leave space between the direction and the stamp for the post mark.

TOBACCO GRADERS NOMINATED

At a meeting Saturday afternoon of the board of directors of the Bourbon county branch of the Co-operative Burley Tobacco Marketing Association, held in the office of the Bourbon County Farm Bureau, the following names were selected for recommendation as tobacco graders for this district: S. Kenney Nichols, W. A. Patton and Jeff Denton. Another committee, appointed to gather samples of the different grades of tobacco from crops in Bourbon county, was composed of James M. Caldwell, Edward Burke, Jeff Denton, Sam Harding, J. W. Bell, James L. Dodge, Charles C. Clarke and S. Kenney Nichols.

FILES BANKRUPTCY PETITION

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the Federal Court, at Lexington, Friday, by O. L. Frye, Paris optician, through his attorneys, Talbott & Whitley, of Paris. Mr. Frye places his liabilities at $1,267.14, and his assets at $1,210.30. It is thought arrangements will be made that will enable him to continue in business.

POSTAGE RATES CUT

Postmaster J. Walter Payne calls attention to the fact that since January 1, 1922, newspapers and publications of the second class separately wrapped, with postage affixed, are accepted for mailing to foreign countries at the rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof. This is one-half of the recent rate.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

J. E. Kreigle, of near Paris, purchased last week of F. S. Brock and others, through Ford & Wood, real estate agents of Georgetown, 150 acres of the farm located on the Carrick pike, in Scott county, for a reported price of $150 an acre. The purchaser will get possession of the place on March 1st.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The basket ball game Friday night between the Covington Y and the Bourbon County Y teams is arousing unusual interest among the Paris fans. The Covington team is an all-star quintet, while the Blue Grass boys believe they will be able to take the game on their own floor. Mr. Basil Hayden has been secured to referee the game.

The Thrift Week Campaign, beginning January 17, which is now a national movement, will be promoted by the Bourbon County Association in co-operation with the ministers, business and professional men of the country.

The Boys' Band is working hard on the program for the benefit concert and minstrel to be given early in February. The proceeds of the concert will be used for buying uniforms for the members of the band. One business man has pledged already $100 toward the fund.

The Directors of the Association will hold their January meeting on Tuesday evening, January 10.

The Younger Boys Bible Class held their first meeting of the year Saturday morning. Great interest was manifested by the boys in their new course, "The Men Who Dared." The course will continue for three months.

Mr. Grover C. Kirgan, of Lexington, will address the bankers of Paris at the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday night on the subject of "Thrift." This will be the first of a series of talks to business men on the subject.

NEW CORPORATIONS

Among the incorporation papers filed last week in the office of the Secretary of State, at Frankfort, were those incorporating Breat & Co., of Paris, at $500,000, with N. Ford Brent, Edward Burke and Harry Brent Fithian as incorporators.

PATRICK J. HALEY,
Syracuse, N. Y.

"I'm feeling like a new man since Tanlac soothed and toned up my stomach and for the first time in forty years can eat a hearty meal and suffer no distress afterwards," was the remarkable statement of Patrick J. Haley, 107 Prospect Ave., Syracuse, N. Y., a well-known iron and steel worker:

"Only those who have had stomach trouble in a bad form can know what I suffered during all these years. I was almost a nervous wreck, too, and for years I didn't know what it was to get a good, sound sleep at night.

"I got new life and energy from each dose of Tanlac and now I'm a well and happy man instead of a sick and miserable one as I was for so many years. I'll vouch for the merits of Tanlac at any time."

Tanlac is sold by all leading drug stores. (adv)

CORDELL HULL

(The Searchlight)

Apparently a strange and unusual thing has happened. One of the two old parties has been given into the executive hands of a man who is more statesman than politician.

The National Committee of the Democratic party has made Cordell Hull its chairman.

Hull is not at all the type generally placed in that important position. A past master at practical politics is usually selected.

That is the first reason for surprise. He knows very little and probably cares less about big, orthodox political manipulations. That is not his way of doing things.

Also, Hull is decidedly a progressive, by habit and from conviction.

In Congress, he ranked among the greatest constructive forces ever to sit in the House. He was a great student and a tireless worker. He demonstrated exceptional capacity as an economist. The income tax law was a product of his planning. On tariff and revenue questions he was particularly expert.

He is clean, courageous, scholarly—a statesman of the Old School who is thoroughly abreast of modern problems.

It will be highly interesting to observe how the Democratic party responds to this kind of leadership.

HARDING OATS

(From Congressional Record)

Senator Heflin (Dem., Ala.), made the statement that in the Northwest oats are selling for about 17 to 20 cents a bushel, then referring to the Republican administration, said, "And by their fruit ye shall know them."

Mr. Caraway—Mr. President, in the interest of accuracy only, let me suggest that when the Senator from Alabama said that we should know the Republican party by its fruits, he meant we should know them by their oats.

Mr. Heflin—That is right, by the price of oats now. I heard of a case where some fellows like Abe Martin said the other day that "Sam Lomax broke his back shouldering a dollar's worth of Harding oats."

WOULD DEPRIVE TOWNS OF FREE MAIL DELIVERY

All small towns in the United States should protest to the Government against the recommendation of Postmaster General Hays that mail deliveries be abandoned in some 750 towns having less than 10,000 population.

Instead of abandoning mail delivery in a single village, the system should be extended.

Mail delivery is one of the most important services—if not the most important service—that the government can render to a community. This is strongly recognized in the cities and large towns that the people of those places are constantly demanding more letter carriers and speedier facilities at stations for handling their mail. In fact, nobody in the postal department even dreams of reducing the system in the larger places.

Why should the people of the small towns be picked on to suffer?

If the government once starts this thing of abandoning the little service it now gives small communities, there is no telling where it will end. If 752 towns can be ruthlessly deprived of letter delivery in one big dump, it will be easy enough to pick larger places, one by one, and drop them from the system.

All American towns of less than 10,000 population ought to raise a tremendous fuss about this matter right away and never let up until the government adopts a direct opposite policy—a policy of extension of service rather than abandonment of any service under the sun, whatever it is.

Variety of Money.

In Africa a weird assortment of beads, elephants' tusks and spearheads is made use of as coins. In Burmah little cowrie shells generally answer the purpose of interchange, but for very small transactions disks of porcelain are made use of. In Oceania, flint axes are the most common means of exchange, but they also make use of ropes of feathers. Some Alaskan Indians still use shell money. In China there are lumps of gold and silver in circulation which have been going the rounds for more than a century.

Ink Stains on Linen.

To remove ink stain on linen, apply chlorinated lime to the stain and wet with vinegar. Do not allow the solution to stand long on the fabric or it will be injured. After the stain disappears, wash the goods.

Indoor Gardening.

A southern family, having lost their maid, pressed into service a colored girl who had been doing outside work. They first taught her to use the carpet-sweeper. Next morning she cheerfully asked, "Miss Jane, shall I lawn-mow de parlor 'gain today?"

Petroleum a Real Wonder.

More than 300 separate products are made from petroleum. High explosives are distilled from it, medicines, dyes and even artificial flavorings—and yet we have but begun to understand this modern wonder worker.

Not Familiar Situation.

Chandler, pastor of the Epworth Methodist church.

The burial followed on the family lot in the Lexington Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: George Jacoby, Marvin Lincoln, Jesse Craig, John Steele, J. B. Wheat and E. E. Wood.

PLUMMER
—Mrs. Emily Plummer, aged seventy-eight, died Friday at the home of her son, Chas. Plummer, on the Clintonville road, near Paris, following an illness of but a few days. Mrs. Plummer was a native of Fleming county, but had been a resident of Bourbon county for thirty years. She was the widow of Milton Plummer, who preceded her to the grave fourteen years ago.

Mrs. Plummer was a lifelong member of the Methodist church, and until her last illness, took an active part in all church affairs. She was gentle and kind in her manner and her lovely Christian character endeared her to all who knew her.

Mrs. Plummer is survived by seven children, two daughters, Miss Bertha Plummer, who resided with her mother, and Mrs. Garret James, of Fleming county; five sons, Chas. A. Plummer, of Bourbon county; Harry A. Plummer, of Georgetown; Samuel A. Plummer, of Lexington; B. H. Plummer, of Covington, and John F. NORTHCOTT —Following a short illness Mr. John B. Northcott, aged ninety-two, one of the pioneer citizens of Paris, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Lexington, yesterday morning, of a complication of diseases. Mr. Northcott had been in apparently good health until a few days ago, when he was taken ill, and was removed to St. Joseph's for treatment. The news of his death came as a shock to the people of Paris, as it was not generally known he was seriously ill.

Mr. Northcott was a native of Fleming county, where he was born ninety-two years ago. Had he lived until March 11 of this year, he would have reached his ninety-third year. He received the rudiments of his early education in the schools of his day, and came to Paris in 1857, where he worked for a time at the trade of tinner, which he had taken up as an avocation. In later years he filled the office of Magistrate of the county, as well as other offices in the gift of the people, and was twice elected Sheriff of the county, a position he filled with signal ability.

For seven years he was cashier of the old Deposit Bank, at a time when the Ruckers, father and sons, conducted the financial affairs of that institution, the banking house at that time being in the building at the corner of High and Broadway, at present occupied by Mrs. John T. Collins and family. He continued with the bank after it had moved to its new location at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, and resigned to enter the real estate business, which he successfully conducted for many years, in fact, up to the time of his last illness. For many years he was associated with the late Jas. Lancaster in the real estate business. He was a member of the Board of Tax Supervisors many times and was a citizen well versed in property values. He was the oldest member, in years, of Paris Lodge, No. 2, F. & A. M., and was the oldest citizen of Paris. In the course of his long and useful life Mr. Northcott amassed a comfortable fortune by frugality, good business methods and judgment.

Mr. Northcott was twice married, his first wife, who preceded him to the grave many years ago, being Miss Emma White, a sister of the late George G. White, wealthy distiller of Paris. His second wife, who survives, was Miss Cora Thompson, of Ohio.

The body was brought to his late home in this city yesterday afternoon. The funeral will take place at the residence to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon, at two o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The burial will follow in the Paris Cemetery.

KENTUCKY SHOULD OWN MAMMOTH CAVE

(Frankfort State Journal)
Twenty-six States have established, or have on foot, projects to establish State parks.

A few States are fortunate in having national parks.

Kentucky has no State park and has no plan to procure one.

Kentucky has a chance to get a national park by acquiring land about the entrance of Mammoth Cave and letting the Federal Government make it a national park. The Secretary of the Interior is interested in the idea.

Provided the necessary land can be procured reasonably it should be a gilt edge investment for the State. Public reservations are valued in other States not on sentimental grounds merely, but as having a "gate money" value; as attractions which cause money to be spent in the State by travelers who come into the State and by citizens of the State who spend their holidays and their holiday funds at home.

Of course, Kentucky cannot afford reckless expenditures, but a national park is worth getting if it can be procured without reckless expenditure.

MAY LOSE FREE DELIVERY

If Congress acts upon the recommendation of Postmaster General Hays the people of the following small towns in Kentucky which now have free mail delivery service will have it discontinued: Berea, Carlisle, Carrollton, Clinton, Corbin, Dawson Springs, Eminence, Falmouth, Franklin, Greenville, Lagrange, Lawrenceburg, Morganfield, Murray, Pikeville, Princeton, Providence, Stanford, Sturgis, Walton and Williamstown.

RECRUITING FOR THE REGULAR ARMY IS RESUMED

Recruiting for the regular army has been resumed. The picturesque Army Post at Fort Thomas, Kentucky, has been a Mecca for hundreds of young men anxious to get a taste of army life.

The staff and technical departments are not open for enlistment, but the combatant branches, Infantry, Cavalry and Field Artillery are filling up their vacancies rapidly.

The Cincinnati district, for which Fort Thomas is the training center, is leading the country in securing new men. This may be attributed to the popularity of Fort Thomas, which post ranks second to none in the matter of athletic diversions. Boxing has been resumed at the military reservation, and the huge throngs that patronized the bouts last summer are again enjoying the thrilling sport.

The headquarters for local district, which comprises Northern Kentucky, Southern Ohio, and Eastern Indiana, is at Room 418, Post-office Building Cincinnati, Ohio.
